

The Organisation of English-speaking African Supreme Audit Institutions (AFROSAI-E) is an autonomous, independent and non-political organisation established as a permanent institution with links to AFROSAI, INTOSAI and the United Nations Organisation. In order to enhance public accountability, the organisation strives to achieve the following objectives:

- To enhance the audit performance of its members.
- To develop and share resources in the region.
- To promote professional and technical development and cooperation among its members and other international and regional bodies such as AFROSAI and INTOSAI.
- To promote and maintain relations with national, regional and international institutions specialising in issues affecting the audit of public resources.
- To support regional institutions in promoting good governance.

AFROSAI-E was established in January 2005
